Letter from the LTG

Hey Corgis!

Hopefully Finals and AP Exams are going great! I know that this time of the year can be pretty stressful for you all so I'm very grateful for everyone who has been keeping up with events and continuing to Volunteer! I am super excited for our Gatsby themed Banquet this month and I hope to see you all there! We all will be giving a warm sendoff to our amazing 24-25 LTG Shaienne Relucio, and our D05S LTG, Haley Alberto. We will be having OTC next month so be on the lookout for more details on that!

Sincerely,

Aaric Modi

Letter from the DNE

INTRO TO KEY CLUB

History

Key Club was started by Albert C. Olney & Frank C. Vincent on May 7, 1925, at Sacramento High School in Sacramento, CA, which still exists as a Key Club today.

Key Club Structure

The members are from a club (ex: Clovis North Key Club), and the club has their officer board. The officer board usually has a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Editor. 2-15 clubs will make a division (ex: Division 05 North). The division is lead the their Lieutenant Governor, and their Division Leadership Team. 2-8 divisions will make a region (ex: Region 12). All regions make up a district (ex: California, Nevada, Hawai'i). Finally, all districts make up the International level.

Key Club Events

- Division Council Meetings: Held by the LTG for the members to learn what is going on in the division, have fun, and meet members from different schools.
- Training conferences: Officer Training Conference, Regional Training Conference, and Candidate Training Conference. Workshops to help officers, and members learn more about Key Club and their roles in Key Club
- Fall Rally: District event held at Six Flags to celebrate all of the funds raised for the Pediatric Trauma Program. All divisions dress up in spirit gear and participate in various spirit battles.
