Past Events & Articles and Visuals

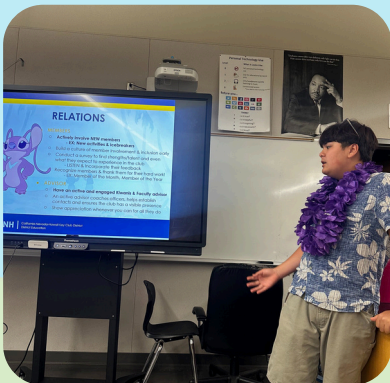

Aktion Club Triathlon (Shaianne Relucio, Clovis North)

One of the D05N Kiwanis Advisors, Mrs. Martinez, invited me to the 20th Annual Aktion Club Triathlon Fundraiser! I was super excited to go since I went last year, and I invited 2 others from my division. In the picture, my friend Michelle is playing bean bag toss while I did free throws and our other friend Madeline did bocce ball. This was a very rewarding experience since we got to bond with other branches of the Kiwanis Family, from Aktion Club to Circle K. Even though we didn't excel in our events, we loved cheering for all the other teams, which earned us the title of Most Inspirational Team!

Officer Training Conference (Aimee Chung, Buchanan)

At LiIO-TC and Stitch, Liberty and Buchanan High Schools' Presidents presented a slideshow on the roles and responsibilities club presidents have within and beyond the club level and the guidelines for leading their club to success. We also shared our personal experiences as presidents of our own clubs and gave additional tips and techniques for our audience when transitioning into or running for the position. We went around the room and had our fellow presidents state one thing they thought they were doing well with their club and one thing they thought could improve upon, which allowed them to be transparent and open about their clubs' strengths and weaknesses.

Officer Training Conference (Nathan Ngyuen, Liberty)

I presented for Presidents at officer trading conference this year with Aimee Chung! It was so fun to meet and train presidents all across division 5. We went over lots of topics that will come up during each of the presidents will encounter. I hope everyone learned a lot and is ready to lead their club!

Thank you to everyone who took pictures at events and submitted their Articles and Visuals! If you would like a chance to be featured in upcoming newsletters, make sure to take pictures at events and fill out the Articles and Visuals form that your editors give you!
